

CDC Screening Guidelines

Age	Cervical Cancer	Chlamydia and Gonorrhea
 Under 21	Women younger than 21 years should not be screened regardless of the age of sexual initiation or the presence of other behavior-related risk factors.	Annual screening is recommended for all sexually active women.	Providers might consider opt-out chlamydia and gonorrhea screening for adolescent and young adult females to increase screening, be cost-saving, and identify infections among patients who do not disclose sexual behavior.
